Information regarding

LANCOM Advanced VoIP Client 1.20

LANCOM Systems GmbH
Adenauerstrasse 20 / B2
52146 Wuerselen
Germany

Internet: http://www.lancom.de

10.05.2007, CBuersch

Table of Contents

1. New Features, Modifications and History

LANCOM Advanced VoIP Client modifications from 1.10.0380 -> 1.20.0070

New Features:

- Support for local conferences
- Support for Windows Vista
- New noise reduction for Voyager 520 Bluetooth Headset
- „Re-Registration Timeout" may be configured in the Windows registry
- LANCOM routers with VoIP domain „internal" or own domain „internal" will be found automatically by the client if the „automatic" profile is being used

Corrections / Modifications:

- The Outlook Add-In of the advanced VoIP Client does no loger cause a crash of Outlook 2003.
- Hotkeys may be used after working with Profile Management
- When using two displays the client window will be shown correctly
- Incoming calls on line 2 are shown in the redialing table
- On outgoing calls, call numbers Call numbers may be suppressed
- Indication of incomimg calls is possible, even if the stored call number was declared as URI
- Conversation recording does no longer stop if the microphone is muted and „Call Waiting" is signalized
- „BYE" is now accepted in "Connecting" state, too
- New port range for „SIP Listener" after the client wakes up from hibernate
- Interpretation of the preferred identity at a SIP transfer
- It is now possible to record voicemail announcements in high quality